

Ventura County Ballet Company

The Ventura County Ballet Company is holding their annual spring ballet, “Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs” at the Oxnard Performing Arts Center on Sunday, April 13th, 2014. Audiences will be in awe of Ventura County Ballet Company’s dance lineup and enjoy the whimsical story of the classic fairytale.

Performing her first year with Ventura County Ballet Company, and starring as Snow White, is 21 year old Lilit Hogtalian from Los Angeles, Calif. Her passion for ballet started 15 years ago during her first ballet class at six years old with Yuri Grigoriev. “I knew at that moment I wanted to be a dancer,” said Hogtalian. She has danced with Los Angeles Ballet and Joffrey Ballet. Hogtalian graduated from Academie de Danse Princesse Grace in Monaco on a full scholarship, and was a gold medalist at Youth America Grand Prix, Long Beach, Calif. She has performed Principal and Soloist roles in The Nutcracker and Waltz Fantasie, and participated in the Monaco Dance Form.

She has worked with choreographers Jean-Christophe Maillot, Wayne McGregor, Robert Sund, Josie Walsh and William Soleau.

Rehearsing six days a week, Hogtalian is dedicated to prepping for her performances including for Snow White. “I really enjoy bringing a character from my childhood to life and giving the same joy I had watching this classic fairytale to the other young ones in the audience,” said Hogtalian.
